In 2014, the poverty line, as established by the guidelines, was $23,850 for a family of four. $4,060 can be added or subtracted from this base number to account for larger and smaller families. The Federal Poverty Guideline aims to simplify the poverty threshold for administrative use, such as identifying eligibility for federal programs.

What is the Federal Poverty Line? | The Borgen Project

The poverty threshold, poverty limit, poverty line or breadline [citation needed] is the minimum level of income deemed adequate in a particular country. Poverty line is usually calculated by finding the total cost of all the essential resources that an average human adult consumes in one year. The largest of these expenses is typically the rent required for accommodation, so historically ...
